AREAS OF PRACTICE

Peter Cadwallader has a general common law practice although he now specialises in crime. For a number of years he has been involved in all areas of serious crime including homicide, fraud, drugs and sexual offences. He has wide experience in cases concerning children and video recorded and video link evidence and has a particular interest in complex fraud cases.

Mr Cadwallader has been involved in mortgage fraud trials, including those involving Solicitors.

He has led other more junior members of chambers in especially complex paper heavy cases.
