PROFILE

Jane Mabon's practice is split between personal injury and family law.

Jane's personal injury practice covers all aspects of personal injury litigation. She receives instructions from both Claimants and Defendants and regularly acts for local authorities. Her practice is both court and paper based and she endeavours to provide a fast and efficient turnaround in respect of the latter.

Her practice includes:

- Road traffic accidents (including claims involving allegations of fraud / low velocity impact arguments)
- Tripping and slipping accidents
- Employer's liability cases
- Accidents abroad
- CRU appeals

Jane will accept instructions on a Conditional Fee basis.
